§2. Condition for obtaining guarantee extension

To obtain the guarantee extension for a further 12 months, the corresponding device has to be registered with DILO within six months after delivery (EXW date) using the following link:

<https://dilo.eu/en/after-sales-services/online-device-registration>

Alternatively, you can request a registration form from our after-sales department:

- Customers/users located in DILO GmbH sales region (Europe, Africa, Asia, South Americas; India, Australia, NewZealand) please contact registration@dilo-gmbh.com or contact us by phone at +49 (0) 8333 302-0.
- Customers/users located in DILO Company, Inc. sales region: (North America, Mexico, Central America, Columbia, Venezuela, or the Caribbean) please contact sales@dilo.com or call (727)376-5593

In order to benefit from the guarantee extension, the device must be registered in the name of the end customer and not distributors or independent sales agents. In case of any questions, please contact our after-sales department.

After registration, the guarantee is extended for an additional 12 months, provided the customer can prove that the device has been maintained and operated in accordance with the operating manuals and no other exclusions apply. Thus, the maximum guarantee extension is 24 months from the day of delivery (EXW date). To prove the purchase of spare parts, please indicate DILO order number (For customer purchased equipment from DILO GmbH starting with three (3) or six (6). For customer purchases from and / or located in DILO Copmany Inc.sales region please indicate the Order number which starts with an "O" followed by a dash and 5 to 6 numbers (i.e. O-123456)If the device or the spare parts are purchased via an independent sales agent authorised by DILO please contact the corresponding sales agent. The purchase of spare parts can be proved by submitting the order of the sales agent. In case it is not possible to prove maintenance work in accordance with the operating manual, the guarantee expires 12 months after the delivery date (EXW-date) outgoing at DILO. The guarantee extension does not cover any costs for maintenance works and spare parts which are to be purchased separately. Please note that the guarantee will be void if no original DILO parts are used. You can purchase the required spare parts from one of our authorised service centres (DILO Authorised Service Centre) or directly from DILO.

For customers located in DILO GmbH sales segiou you may contact the After Sales department as follows:service@dilo-gmbh.com or +49 (0) 8333 302-0. Please find our authorised service centres under: www.dilo.eu. For customers located in DILO Copmany Inc.sales regionou may contact the After Sales department as follows: sales@dilo.com or (727)376-5593

In case maintenance work is carried out by the customer, there is no guarantee claim unless it is not explicitly described in the operating manual. Maintenance, repair or service works carried out by the DILO "Service Centres" do not result in a reduction or termination of the guarantee period.

The guarantee claim expires if the responsible DILO branch or the authorised DILO service centre has not been informed on the fault within 5 working days. Any late notification will no longer be accepted by a DILO branch or the authrosied DILO service center as a guarantee claim.

DILO reserves the right to refuse or exclude a claim for any reasons including, but not limited to, the items outlined in section §3 of this document.

§5. Obligations of the customer

If on-site maintenance is necessary for troubleshooting, the customer must provide DILO with the corresponding documents for entry, troubleshooting etc. free of charge and promptly.

In case the required documents are not provided by the customer in due time, the guarantee extension of the corresponding product expires. If the entry visa is refused or could not be granted, the guarantee of the product will also expire.

If it is necessary to replace components for troubleshooting, old / damaged components or parts have to be returned to DILO at the customer's expense upon request. The return transport must be coordinated with the responsible DILO contact person at DILO. The customer is obligated to assist DILO in exporting and importing the goods, if necessary. All requested documents for the import to the registered country of DILO (Federal Republic of Germany, United States of America or Singapore) must be provided by the customer free of charge and in time.

If single components have to be replaced due to a guarantee case, this has no influence on the residual run-time of the guarantee. Furthermore, the guarantee period does not start anew.

If sensors become defective during the extended guarantee period, they will be replaced covering the relevant portion for the time remaining until calibration (i.e. 1/24 per month remaining).

§6. Export fees and penalty

Transport costs and any import / export fees (customs duties, taxes,...) are excluded from the guarantee extension and the customer has to pay the total amount.

DILO Armaturen und Anlagen GmbH, DILO Company, Inc., DILO Production Inc. dba DILO Direct will not bear any direct or indirect penalty or costs arising from a guarantee claim.

§7. Obligations of the DILO authorised Service Centre

DILO reserves the right to request proof of preventive maintenance work from the DILO authorised service centres at any time.

The repair report from an authorised service centre is sufficient for this purpose.

Guarantee claims by the end customer which are within the guarantee period must be reported to DILO in written form within 5 working days.

§8. General terms of condition

With the registration of your device on the DILO website or via the registration form, you agree to the general terms and conditions of DILO Armaturen und Anlagen GmbH (global customer, expected customer from North America and Middle America) and of DILO Company, Inc (customer from North America and Middle America) to be found on the following links:
